All we can do as a club is continue with our safety protocols and ensure that we keep each other safe. Stay home if you feel sick or are exposed to someone with COVID. In the club please always wear a mask on and off the ice.

Reminder of New Curling Etiquette

We are so excited to be able to return to the ice once more, but we must do so with safety as a top priority. The club will be taking all the necessary precautions, disinfected on a regular basis, and abiding by government guidelines, but it only matters if we all do our part. Each of us, every single league, every single night, and every single event, need to look out for one another. Wear your mask, wash your hands, keep six feet apart and socially distanced, and please stay home if you have any symptoms. Let's not bring COVID to the club and protect our curling family.

Also, as a friendly reminder from House committee, if you finish a hand sanitizer bottle or sanitizer wipes, please place the empty containers onto the bar in the warm room so they can be replenished.

Rules for Play During Covid-19

ON THE ICE

MASK ARE REQUIRED AT ALL TIMES WHILE PLAYING

NON-DELIVERING TEAM POSITIONS

GAMES WILL START ON OPPOSITE ENDS

Drawmasters will determine the manner of assigning all hammer and stone colors.

The winning team (or team who had hammer last) must clean the rocks and the scoreboard at the conclusion of the game. We will use disinfecting wipes for this process. Only ice technicians and designated members should handle ice making equipment. When cleaning ice, players doing the cleaning should follow these steps: Remove gloves. Sanitize hands. Clean ice. Sanitize hands again.

Please use your own equipment for curling (Broom, stabilizer, grippers, step-on slider). The proshop will be open for members to purchase any needed equipment.

No handshakes or elbow bumps. A simple "Good Curling" or "Good luck" will suffice.

Sheets 1 and 3 will begin each draw on the scoreboard end. Sheets 2 and 4 will begin play at the glass end.

Only Thirds / Vice Skips are to interact with scoreboards.

You can use your feet or a broom to move any rock not in play, but the only use your hands to move rocks if they are the rocks you are throwing.

When measuring, players doing the measure should follow these steps. Remove gloves. Sanitize hands. Do measurement. Sanitize hands again.

Only one sweeper per stone. No relaying the sweep (sweeper switches with teammate halfway down the ice). Skip/Vice-Skip also should not assist sweeping. The Skip/Vice must move away from the sweeper coming down the ice to ensure social distancing.

Non-delivering team Skip/Vice may not enter the house until opposing Skip/Vice relinquishes control. You may not sweep your opponent's stone behind the tee line. If the rock is swept accidently, the non-offending skip can place the rock back where they thought it would have ended. Non-delivering team locations. Skip stands behind the playing end Hack. Sweepers stand near the center of the ice on the side of the sheet towards the wall on sheet 1. Next to deliver can be at the delivering end courtesy line. Spots will be marked on the ice for suggested places to stand. Always social distance from other players on your sheet and neighboring sheets.

"Community" water pitchers WILL NOT be provided. Please bring your own water bottle or order a single serve item from the bar.

A Note from Jack's Place

Eric is looking for individuals to learn how to prep the ice, particularly how to use the scraper. We currently only have a small handful of individuals in the club who feel comfortable operating it. If Eric were to contract COVID and become unable to work, our ice quality would suffer until we are able to get more people trained. If you have time and are interested in volunteering, please contact Eric either in person at the club or via email at ekortebe@gmail.com.

The volunteer committee also is asking leagues to have one team a week come in early to assist Eric is prepping the ice. Please take a moment to talk with your team and figure out a week where at least two members of your team and sign up today!

Match Game 21 with the DCC!

On January 23rd, John James hosted the Match Game 21 with panelists Katty McLady, Micky OUTturn, Muffy vonTakeout. Nate Glitman had a steady run of matches in the beginning of the game including a super match until paired up against Mike Norris. Mike ran the board for several rounds and ended up winning with approximately 20 points! Lots of laughter and a groovy time for everyone that came out to participate. Participants included: Laura Gilchrist (Katty McLady), Mike Grudzinski (Micky OUTturn), Maryanne Wessels (Muffy vonTakeout), Ian Boynton (Skip Takeout), John Danckaert (John James), Damien & Pam Buchkowski, Samantha & Carolyn Lewis, Margaret Finnegan-Boynton, Mike Norris & Joey, Roger & Suzanne York, Anne & Matt Cramer, and Nate Glitman.

Thanks to the Membership Committee for organizing and putting on this fun event! Hope to see even more people in next month's event!

Ladies' 2-Day Bonspiel Update

The Ladies' bonspiel committee has made the difficult decision to cancel this year's event. We look forward to putting on a great weekend of curling next season!

Bowling Green Ladies' 1-Day

Our friends at the Bowling Green Curling Club are hosting a one-day ladies' bonspiel on March 20, 2021. ## USWCA News

The USWCA has made the difficult decision to cancel all USWCA events for the '20-'21 curling season. This includes both the Senior and National bonspiels, the Circuit, the All American, and 5&Under bonspiels. Additionally, the incoming Scot tour has been postponed for one year. The USWCA will not be collecting any dues from clubs or individuals for the '20-'21 curling season. The USWCA is calling this year a blanked end. However, the organization is still hard at work and would like to share the current Wrep letter so that you can keep up with the happenings of the USWCA. Our own Maryanne Wessels is the designer of the Wrep letter. If you haven't checked out the printed version at the club in the past, click on this link and take a look! If you have any questions about the USWCA, please contact representative Bethany Rivera. https://www.uswca.org/brochure.

The Ford Trophy

One of the many framed old pictures hanging proudly in our clubhouse shows four curlers, winners of the Ford Trophy. I was asked if the trophy had been presented by the Ford Motor Company.

The Ford Trophy was created in 1906 by DCC member John A. Ford to establish an annual tournament between the three curling clubs of Detroit and Windsor at that time: the Detroit Curling Club, the Detroit Racquets and Curling Club and the Windsor Curling Club. The competition was set up for 4 teams from each club and the event would run for a maximum of 5 years. In addition to the trophy the members of the winning team would each be awarded a button or pin—also supplied by Mr. Ford. The Windsor Star called the Ford Trophy: "The most coveted prize in local curling."

John A. Ford was born in 1857 in Wayland, a small town south of Grand Rapids, MI. He was the sixth of seven children. His father had been a farmer, a laborer and a drayman: the driver of a dray—a low, flat-bed horse drawn wagon used for transporting of all kinds of goods. Ford had left home before 1890. By 1895 he was running a saloon at 46 Woodbridge Street in Detroit. The saloon was apparently a very successful endeavor. Within 5 years the saloon moved to larger quarters at 92 Woodward Avenue at Congress. Ford also acquired a cigar store.

The 1900 census states that he was single, rented a house at 46 Griswold and had 3 servants. He was a dog lover and always had at least one fox terrier. As a shotgun enthusiast he belonged to the Pastime Gun Club and the Wolverine Gun Club. Ford also created a Ford Trophy for a competition at the Wolverine Gun Club.

He joined the Detroit Skating and Curling Club in 1898. He quickly became known as "an excellent lead or second." Ford played in many competitions both in-house and on-the-road. In the 1902 season he was listed as a skip. He was elected to the club's Board in 1903 and served for three years. At 48 years old he married Genevieve Rigby whose father was an inventor – who had designed, patented and manufactured a new type of steel-tired railway wheel - saving money and longer lasting. When the newlyweds returned home from their wedding trip, friends gave Ford a diamond ring and to his wife they gave a tiger's head pin which had diamond eyes and other gems.

In January 1906 Ford offered the trophy to be competed annually by Detroit, Windsor and Racquets. Each club was to enter four teams. In the first round two Detroit teams would play against two Windsor teams and the other Detroit teams would play against two of the Racquets teams. The remaining Windsor teams would play against the remaining two Racquets teams. The losing teams were eliminated and the winning teams progressed through a "ladder" until a winner was decided. This was not meant as a weekend event, but rather played at agreed upon times throughout the season. It should be pointed out that during this period curling games were a grueling 14 ends.

The first round of games was held February 9th at all three clubs. It was a drawmaster's dream: at each rink the games were split even, leaving two four-man teams from each club still in the race. The final game came down to a Detroit team and a Windsor rink. Windsor won the final game 12 to 8.

January 23, 1907 was round one of the second year of competition. Again all three clubs entered four teams. Two Windsor and two Racquets teams were eliminated in round one. On the second night of competition the Racquets club could not field a team. The two remaining Windsor rinks were eliminated leaving two Detroit teams. Ben Guiney defeated James Craig in the final match for a Detroit win in 1907.

The Racquets Club was eliminated in the first round in 1908. The final game was a Detroit team versus a Windsor rink. Detroit won the last game 18 to 8.

The Detroit Racquets and Curling Club dropped out of the 1909 competition. It was decided that Detroit CC and the Windsor CC would each send 6 teams into the event. In round one 5 of the 6 Windsor rinks lost. Yet the one remaining Windsor rink went on to claim the 1909 title.

On January 28, 1910 six Windsor rinks crossed the river to compete on the Forest Avenue ice. Forgetful of all the rules of hospitality the Detroiters won every one of the matches therefore ensuring that a Detroit team would claim the trophy in its final year. It should be noted that John A. Ford was one of the six first-round winning skips – this is the only year in which he had competed in the tournament. John Stevenson's rink prevailed through the remaining games. This ended the Ford Trophy contest - Windsor winning twice and Detroit three times.

Ford's Restaurant continued as a vibrant business on Woodward for many years. Mr. Ford retired in 1935 when he sold the establishment. He died November 30, 1940. He was survived by his wife and a son – John S. Ford.

The trophy was not supplied by Ford Motor Company. The picture in our club is not one of the three Detroit teams who won it, but rather the 1906 winning rink from the Windsor Curling Club. Unfortunately, the trophy is not at The Club now and it was not listed in a 1951 inventory of our trophies. Perhaps Mr. Ford put it on display in his saloon.

Time to find my doodlesack,

~Angus MacTavish

Club Jackets & Call for Sponsorship

Greetings fellow curlers! A few months ago, while I was at the End of Summer Spiel in Fort Wayne, I noticed that quite a few clubs around our area had very nice-looking club jackets and I thought, we should have them too! After discussing the idea with fellow members, I approached Bret with this idea and Maryanne for a design, and I am happy to present the following jacket design to you:

In addition to having our very own club jackets, I am hoping to generate some extra revenue for the club, particularly as this pandemic is putting a strain on the club's finances. To generate extra revenue, I talked to Bret about selling advertising space on the jackets and would like to ask club members for help. There are only seven advertising spaces available on the jacket. The pricing for the jackets will be around $125. If any club member is interested in buying advertising space on the jacket to promote their business or think that their company might be interested, please feel free to email me at Jeffrey.a.peplinski@gmail.com for pricing information.

Parting Shots with Skippie McSurly

"Up the stick!"

When you hear those words, you know it's important to focus on hitting the broom. A lot of good things can happen when you hit the broom.

The same could be said for draw weight but when you have to remove rocks, nothing is more important than hitting the broom. Most of the time you will be throwing "normal" take-out weight, so the focus shifts from weight to accurately hitting the broom.

Once you can consistently hit the broom on take outs it becomes easier to make more difficult, critical shots like tight come arounds and freezes.

In my opinion, hitting the broom is the last thing you should be thinking about when releasing the stone. Initially, each player should "buy-in" or believe in the shot and "trust the broom" then think about weight before getting in the hack. As you set up in the hack, focus on mechanics and alignment then drive out, release the stone and hit the broom!

Of course, you can't hit your target or make your shot if you don't have the right ice. Skips gauge (or guess) ice based on the accuracy of their team and the conditions of the ice. If the team is not hitting the broom, skips start to second guess ice calls, particularly their own. It can be disconcerting when a skip asks teammates, "Do you remember how much ice we took for a shot like this in the second end?" More often than there not, there is dead silence. "Really? You're the skip!" is what they're thinking.

Problems arise when a team, especially a skip, is not confident about an ice call and decides to aim at a leg or yells out, "Is that enough ice?" You can hear eyes rolling!

That's when a lot of bad things can happen.

Confidence is contagious. When you "trust the broom" and make your aim true, everyone gains confidence, especially the skip.

Good curling!

McSurly TIP: Use your time on practice ice hitting the broom. Practice ice is notoriously slow and not productive for draw weight. Set up targets or have someone hold the broom half way down the ice. The club has tools and our clinics can accelerate the learning curve. Like golf, find a delivery that works for you...and hit the broom!
