Detroit Takes Gold & Silver at Senior Nationals

We had three members competing at Senior Nationals in Seattle March 6-11, 2023. Ann Swisshelm (Skip M. Smith), Sean Silver (Skip J. Wright) and Elizabeth Demers (Skip T. Lawless). Ann and Elizabeth ended up facing each other in what was a repeat of last year's Senior Nationals finals. Elizabeth brought home a silver medal and Ann with Team Smith took gold and will represent the United States at the World Senior Championships April 22-29, 2023 in Gangneung, Korea. In addition, Sean Silver was added as an alternate for Team Larway. Good curling Ann, Sean, and Elizabeth!

Volunteer Opportunities

There are still opportunities to get involved this year. Many hands make for light work. If you are interested in volunteering, joining the committee, or have questions, reach out to Maryanne Wessels at bonspiels@detroitcurling.com. Check out our Volunteer Opportunities page here for available slots and sign-up for when you are available to help.

1. Looking for an event to volunteer for? Check out the number of opportunities available here. Upcoming events with immediate needs: Champagne Spiel, Junior 1 Day Friendly, and Motor City Cup. Take a look at the link and see if there's a spot you can help out!
2. Rentals Committee – We are looking for members who are interested in joining the Rentals Committee. Rentals are our number one source of income and will be the center of our club's financial health. The committee focuses on behind-the-scenes activities to support rentals. Some of the activities the committee members will take on: help manage the rental bookings, helping manage the instructors, managing corporate rentals, marketing open weekday daytime rentals to schools, helping manage the rentals system, documenting the current processes, and other activities that can improve rentals, etc. One of the roles of the committee is to determine other tasks the committee should take on. If you are interested, please email Don Bleaney at: rentalsdirector@detroitcurling.com.
3. The club is looking for a drawmaster for the new Sunday 9:30PM drop-in league. If you have questions or are interested in being the drawmaster for this league, please email Mike Grudzinski at: membership@detroitcurling.com.

Five and Under Rules Change

5 & Under Eligibility Rules –Included in the 2022-2023 USA Curling Rules of Curling & Competition are the updated 5 & Under eligibility rules. Mike 'Doc Ballz' Hardman also took runner up in the A Event with his team. Thankfully one of his teammates caught up with him at the Brier to return his equipment.

Senior Men's Nationals

The DCC was well represented at the Senior Nationals at Kettle Moraine-Wauwatosa, Wisconsin with six of the sixty-four teams from Detroit Curling Club. We had teams representing all three divisions. Though we did not all bring back metals, we did all bring back great memories. Some of our games will be discussed for years.

Team Hesse was runner-up in the third event of the Super Seniors Division at the Senior Nationals, Feb. 16-19, in Wisconsin. The Detroit CC rink – skip David Hesse, vice John Stratton, second Joe George, and lead Bill Collison – finished with a 2-3 record in the bonspiel.

The Rivera rink (Adam Rivera, Roger York, Mike Bahr, Larry Aubuchon) made it to the Senior Division First Event Semi-finals before losing to Team Arrel from Owatonna/Rochester (MN).

Mixed International Bonspiel

Rockettes Curling Development Fund

The Rockettes are committed to providing opportunities to DCC curlers through the Rockettes Curling Development Fund (RCDF). The RCDF provides funding to support curling development or for members to attend events which promote women's curling. Any DCC member of good standing of any age or gender may apply for funding, and the priority is to provide funding to women based on eligible events and activities. Examples of possible RCDF grants support things like certified instructor programs, coaching programs, ice clinics, officiating clinics, skills clinics, and travel expenses to USWCA, OCA, or USCA Curling events where a team has progressed via a play down.

For questions and to receive an application, which includes the full eligibility rules and funding criteria, email rockettes@detroitcurlingclub.com.

The RCDF is funded by things like t-shirt sales, food sales, and Super Bowl Squares so thank you for all of your spending to make this initiative happen!

Rockettes Sinners Invitational Bonspiel

The inaugural Rockettes-Sinners Invitational was held on February 11-12. The skins format bonspiel pitted Rockettes (and some Sinners who graciously played with them) against the Sinners in two games on Saturday. After a delicious dinner, attendees were treated to a DCC adaptation of the Match Game and other festivities. The traditional Sweetheart Sinners breakfast kicked off the day on Sunday followed by the four highest scoring teams competing in the finals events. The A Event Winners were the Hardman team consisting of Mike "Doc Ballz" Hardman (skip), Ben Duby (vice), John Stratton (second), and Ben Glotzhober (lead).

Shout out to Don Bleaney for creating the trophy and a big thank you to Duncan Whitmore and Karina Lizzi-Ansok for organizing this new event!

The Detroit Curling Club Royal Order of Sinners Mission Statement

The Detroit Curling Club Royal Order of Sinners men's club promotes fellowship and camaraderie on and off the ice while creating benefits and lasting experiences.

For questions or further information, email The Sinners at: sinners@detroitcurlingclub.com

The February 12, 2023 Sweetheart Sinners breakfast was an overwhelming success with approximately sixty people in attendance. This breakfast coincided with the first Sinners-Rockette's Invitational Bonspiel, which followed a skins format. We look forward to future collaborations between the Sinners and Rockettes!

On Sunday, February 26, 2023 we lost a dear friend and fellow K-W Exchange member. David Cain, member of the KW Granite Club, passed away at home surrounded by family as a result of pancreatic cancer. Dave was a quiet and kind soul with a profound love of organization. Dave had been responsible for maintaining and organizing the Exchange website for many years. In addition to curling, Dave was an avid cyclist and had cycled extensively throughout Europe. Camping and sailing on Georgian Bay rounded out other hobbies that David loved participating in with family and friends. David, we will miss you; thank you for all you have done for the legacy of the Exchange and, most of all, your friendship and kindness. Good curling...

Pro Shop Update

Custom Embroidery Anybody?

If you have a garment that you really like to wear while curling and want to personalize it, your club has made arrangements with “Not Sorry Goods” located at 99623 Woodward Ave., Ferndale, Mi. They are located on the east side of Woodward at Breckinridge St. Bring your shirt, jacket, parka, stocking cap, scarf, mittens or anything else you would like personalized. They have the digital files of our club crest, the Rockettes logo and the Sinners logo. You can select to include your name in any color and font style or add any other embellishment you choose. Their prices are reasonable, they are close to the club and their turn-around is fast. Get stylin’ and you won’t be Sorry!

Nametags

The list of requested nametags has gotten shorter during the past two weeks. If you are in need of a replacement or have not received your initial nametag, be sure to add your name to the list on the bulletin board. We generally wait until there are at least 10 names on the list for best pricing. Be sure to PRINT CAREFULLY, to avoid misspellings.

Glassware

The Pro Shop and the Bar offer DCC glassware for sale. The whiskey glasses have almost sold out. Last count indicated only six (6) left. Also available are water bottles, pint and wine glasses. The last of the unique Shot Glasses are still available at the bar. If you have been thinking of getting some, don’t hesitate too long or they might be gone. We are selling them to our rental guests too. Be fair warned!

Donated Used Equipment

If you have upgraded your curling equipment, mainly shoes & brooms, and your older stuff is gathering dust in the corner, why not donate to the club? The Pro Shop reconditions the gear and offers it to our newer members at super low prices so they have a chance to gear up and get better acquainted with our sport without going whole hog into new equipment. It allows our newer curlers to grow into the sport just like you did way back when. So, dust off that older gear, bring it in and help make our newer members happy.

Benjamin F. Guiney Memorial Cup

The Competition

This trophy was awarded to the winning rink of the annual senior rink championship within The Detroit Curling Club 1941-1944. Little is known about the competition because it was the last contest of the season. Therefore, it attracted very little attention in the press. We do not know anything about the format of play nor the qualifications to enter.

We have found one reference that the B.F. Guiney Memorial Trophy was used for an in-club competition in March 1931 – this was 4 months after Mr. Guiney died. The question now: is why did they wait to engrave the names of the winners until 1941.

The sponsor of the trophy, Burr, Patterson & Auld Co., was a jewelry firm and I can find no connection between the personnel of the firm and The Club. So, I do not know how or why they sponsored such a large trophy.

Benjamin F. Guiney

Base ball player in 1880 – Curler in 1929

Benjamin Franklin Guiney was born on November 16, 1858 in Detroit to Daniel Guiney (1827-1891) and Kate Sullivan (1834-1919). Daniel & Kate emigrated from Ireland in 1850 to Detroit. Daniel held a number of jobs before entering Detroit City Politics where he served as an alderman for most of his life.

Ben Guiney was an athletic young man and while attending The Detroit High School he was one of the first people in Detroit to play a new game called base ball. The game's popularity grew thru the late 1800s and various cricket clubs in Detroit started forming base ball teams. Eventually these amateur teams even traveled from city to city. Ben joined The Landing Club and The Cass Club.

On June 27, 1879 The Detroit Free Press stated that “one of the best games of base ball ever played in this city was played on the grounds of the Peninsula Cricket Club yesterday by the Cass Club and the Lansing Club.” During the game Ben Guiney as catcher was credited with a spectacular play at home plate.

May 2, 1881 saw the first Major League Base Ball Game in Detroit

The Detroit Wolverines, newest member of the country’s most powerful baseball circuit, the National League, inaugurated big-league ball in the city with a 6-4 loss to Buffalo before 1,265 at Recreation Park. The Wolverines won the National League pennant in 1887 and an unusual cross-country “world’s series” against the St. Louis Browns of the American Association. The Wolverines disbanded in 1888 after eight seasons.

Ben Guiney played in 3 games for the Wolverines. In 1883 he played in 1 game and had 1 hit in 5 at-bats. In 1884 he played in 2 games going hitless in 7 at-bats. He also umpired a National League game on July 6, 1882 and another game on September 25, 1883. (In these days there was only 1 umpire).

Recreation Park was also used in the winter by the curling clubs of Detroit: The Granite, The Thistle and The Detroit Curling Club. We can only assume that Ben was exposed to our sport during the late 1800s. We believe he joined the DCC in about 1900. He served as President during the 1910-1911 season.

Ben married and had 8 children. It is not known if any of them ever curled or joined the club. As an interesting sidebar: Ben & his family “summered” at their island home.... on Grosse Ile.

He was a very active and extremely talented curler – both at home and on the bonspiel circuit.

Ben died December 5, 1930.

Another trivia point is that Walter O. Briggs (owner of The Detroit Tigers 1919-1952) was a member of The Club but I have not found much information on his curling activities or any interaction with Ben F. Guiney. We do know that they were both active in the political arena and the wives crossed-paths on the social circles.

In conclusion, we have discovered another very interesting and complex story within the membership of The Detroit Curling Club. “Who’s better than us? Naebody!”

Angus MacTavish
